CBWW's West Town office receives honors

The West Town office of Coldwell Banker Wallace & Wallace, Realtors was the top office in closed adjusted gross commission income for all of Tennessee in 2010.

"I am very happy that our office received this award," said Beth Stewart, CBWW West Town office principal broker.

CBWW's West Town office is comprised of about 70 real estate agents and also has the commercial loan division, relocation division and its own loan officer with Monarch Mortgage.

CBWW also is celebrating its 75th anniversary in the Knoxville area real estate industry. Owned by brothers Jim and George Wallace, the company has six offices with about 300 agents, a commercial division, relocation division, full-time marketing department, title company, mortgage company and produces a monthly magazine, "Welcome Home." For more information, visit www.CBWW.com.
